

Corey was an exceptional student at South High, excelling in debate and carrying a 4.0 grade point average. She planned to pursue a career in medicine, and was a volunteer at the NICU at Providence Hospital.

Corey was one of the most accomplished debaters in South High School history. She was named the 2008/2009 MVP of the South Anchorage HS DDF team, and was elected to become the team Interpretation Captain for the 2010/2011 season. She had most recently achieved 1st place overall (with teammate Bexley Brown) and 2nd best speaker in British Parliamentary Debate at the 2010 Northern Lights Tournament at the University of Alaska Anchorage. Her list of accomplishments was impressive, including:

- Advanced to quarterfinals of the 2010 Alaska State DDF Championship tournament in Lincoln Douglas Debate

- Qualified to the 2010 national championship tournament in Dramatic Performance and Duo Interpretation

- Inducted into the National Forensic League honor society on October 11, 2008

- Was recognized for Special Distinction for sustained forensics success by the National Forensic League on April 17th, 2010 with the Double Ruby Award

- Although only a sophomore, was 5th on the all time "wins" list in individual events (speech & acting) at South HS

- Achieved a lifetime 37-26 record (58.37% - win percentage) in competitive debate

 - In '09/'10 she had a 28-13 (68.29%)

Tournament Awards

- 4th place in Lincoln Douglas Debate at the 2008/2009 South HS DDF Tournament (her first competition)

- 2nd place overall and 3rd best speaker in Student Congress at the 2008/2009 Service HS DDF Tournament
- 4th place in Public Forum Debate (with teammate Tavish Logan) at the 2008/2009 Dimond HS DDF Tournament
- 3rd place in Public Forum Debate (with teammate Tavish Logan) at the 2008/2009 Eagle River tournament
- 2nd place in Duo Interpretation (with teammate Tavish Logan) at the 2008/2009 Eagle River tournament
- 3rd place (tie) in Readers' Theater (with teammates Lorelei Dattan, Claire Schapira, & Kelsey Colclough) at the 2008/2009 Eagle River tournament
- 2nd place overall and 4th best speaker in Lincoln Douglas Debate at the 2009/2010 South tournament
- 1st place in Duo Interpretation (with teammate Claire Schapira) at the 2009/2010 South tournament
- 3rd place overall and 2nd best speaker in Lincoln Douglas Debate at the 2009/2010